PRESS RELEASE

C film Fringe Film Festival

Returning for its twelfth season, C's critically-acclaimed curated programme showcases silver screen shorts and contemporary filmmakers all day, every day.

Pop in for a quirky short or linger longer for a moving moment – fabulously fresh innovation to discuss. Features work from UK, Europe, Americas, Asia, world wide, in its new home at C royale.

Returning for its twelfth season, this critically-acclaimed curated programme features a fabulous list of shorts from animation to arthouse, drama to documentary. A truly international selection boasts works from as far afield as Australia and Asia, and as close to home as Haymarket. Showcasing works from established filmmakers and aspiring directors, the Fringe Film Festival is all about variety and independent contemporary work. From a dark and twisted exploration of sexuality to a documentary depicting democracy through the ages, our vibrant all-day programme is a must for discerning film folk and interested newcomers.

The Fringe Film Festival programme builds on years of successful cinematic seasons. Hosted this year in C royale, the buzzing new hub venue in the heart of Edinburgh, every day of the week sees a different genre screened all day for free, giving tired Festival-goers the chance to grab a drink and a seat in front of films designed to entertain and provoke thought.

Feature film continues at CtheFilm this year. A varied programme of new feature films will be screened in the evenings throughout the Festival, along with a programme of silent films which includes vintage animation and silver screen greats such as Buster Keaton and Charlie Chaplin.
