PRESS RELEASE

LUND The Odyssey after Homer

Young ensemble retell the Odyssey with bold physical theatre and live music for a fresh take on Homer's classic

Homer's epic tale of Odysseus' battle to return to the woman he loves has inspired storytelling for centuries. Devised by a company of young actors, this new adaptation of The Odyssey is a condensed, tense, charged retelling of this enormous classic.

Lund's reworking focuses on Odysseus. The cast share the role, each revealing their own aspect of the character. The production reveals the complexity and humanity of the hero and his battle with the journey home.

A chorus comprised of Odysseus' crew take the audience through the journey, fusing movement with fast-paced dialogue and live music. The cast of performers drive the narrative on with energy, strength and precision and use ambitious physical theatre to tell their story.

Lund makes new theatre. The company is comprised of a young ensemble – committed to inventive storytelling. Our work is collaborative and lyrical. This is our third year as one of the youngest companies at the Fringe.
