PRESS RELEASE

Lund Hysterical by the company

Feminism is a tricky word. Misunderstood, misused and missing out men. Or is it?

How is gender understood by the general public and what does it mean in the age of Trump, #metoo and BiC Pens For Her? We have had awkwardly frank conversations with everyone from a suffragette grandmother to pornstar Ben Dover.

Fusing the frank language of interview testimony with beautiful movement inspired by Gecko, Frantic Assembly and DV8, Hysterical promises to be a fresh, varied and often outrageous take on what gender means today. It might get weird but it definitely won't be boring.

An ensemble of 11 young performers conducted the interviews and will present their findings in what promises to be a divisive and emotive production.

Lund makes new theatre. The company is comprised of a young ensemble committed to inventive storytelling. Our work is collaborative and lyrical. This is Lund's fourth year as one of the youngest companies at the Fringe.

The company also perform Let's Talk About Porn from 19-25 Aug at C at 19:50.
