PRESS RELEASE

Alpha Productions (Australia) Alpha by Sebastian Robinson and Tamara Natt

Will getting to the top help us find love, or just cause more heartache? Want to be on top?

In our seemingly endless pursuit of the alpha state, i.e. success as we define it, we can find ourselves addicted to flux. Where is our destination? What is our destiny? No time to bottom out! Come run with the alphas and perhaps we'll discover just the answers we're seeking.

A high-speed collision of bodies and ranting rhyme, Alpha is a new performance work blending poetry, physical theatre and pop. Like a glass of scotch before bed, Alpha is a night cap musing on queer life using rhythmic rhyming and physical theatre to hypnotise and entice the audience. Alpha aims to get us to that spot many people spend their whole lives trying to reach: the top. What is an Alpha? Are they special? Am I one? How many different versions of a top are there these days? .

Alpha is a performance of love poetry from performers Sebastian Robinson, Tamara Natt, Andy Dexterity, Dylan Rodriguez and Luke Hubbard, making its European Debut at the Edinburgh Fringe following sell-out performances at the 2015 Melbourne Fringe Festival, and in Sydney for the 2016 Mardi Gras. Exploring the identity politics of love, aspiration, and change, Alpha is a celebration of language and it revels in the wonder of the spoken word, as a way to entertain us, provoke us, and move us.
